Alamance County Board of Health Holds Annual Awards Ceremony

BURLINGTON- On December 13th, the Alamance County Board of Health held its annual awards ceremony at the Alamance County Health Department recognizing the work of employees and community partners.

The Board of Health recognized Angie Sloate as the recipient of the Alamance County Health Department's 2016 Employee of the Year Award. The 2016 Employee of the Year award is selected by the Board of Health from nominations from health department staff.

The Board of Health also recognizes outside agencies, organizations, or individuals that have partnered with the health department with the Public Health Partnership Award. The Board of Health recognized Impact Alamance as the 2016 Public Health Partnership Award recipient. Impact Alamance was recognized for its continuous support to the county and various community programs through partnerships and grant funding.

Health Director Stacie Saunders recognized Jon Fowlkes with the Health Director's "You Can Count on Me" Award. This award is presented to an employee who exemplifies the values of Public Health: Everywhere, Everyday, for Everybody.

Also recognized were Robin Robertson, who retired this year with 28 years of service, and Mr. Michael Venable in appreciation of nine years of service as a member of the Alamance County Board of Health.
