“Cruises” that begin & end in the US do not require you to have a Passport Book. BUT: should you need to disembark due to an emergency and do not have a Passport Book, you may have difficulty returning to the U.S. by air! Airlines require a valid PASSPORT BOOK (not the card)! It is strongly recommended that you ALWAYS travel out of the USA with a valid Passport Book especially now with COVID-19 problems!

HOW TO REPORT YOUR PASSPORT LOST OR STOLEN

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM IDENTITY FRAUD
Please submit Form DS-64 and answer all questions, sign and submit to U.S. Dept. of State, Passport Services, Consular Lost/Stolen Passport Section, 1111 19th Street, NW, Suite 500, Washington, DC 20036 OR report by phone: 202-955-0430.
For more information on how to replace a lost/stolen passport, please visit travel.state.gov.

PASSPORT PHOTOS - ALL photos must meet the NEW U.S. Passport Agency Photo Requirements located at: travel.state.gov

Caution: Not all Photo Stores know the Passport Regulations and your photo may not be accepted! Some requirements are: NO MORE DIGITAL CAMERA RETOUCHED PHOTOS removing shadows/red-eyes or adjusting contrast exposure. NO GLASSES! You can smile naturally, but do not close eyes. No uniforms, or camouflage clothing. Skin tones must be accurately reproduced and no shadows in background of photo AND NO DARK SHADOWS AROUND EYES, whites of your eyes must be seen!
