THE SOUTH ANNEX LIBRARY IS NOW CLOSED

Due to water and water related damage, resulting from the past inclement weather, the South Annex Library will not reopen. Alamance County Public Libraries will continue to provide free Internet service to southern and northern Alamance through the Mobile Café service, please find this schedule here: <https://www.alamancelibraries.org/services/mobile-vehicles>. Library patrons may also return their library materials through this new service as well.

Alamance County Public Libraries will continue to service southern and northern Alamance County through a bookmobile in the near future.
