

Alamance County Public Libraries

Mobile Library Stop Request Form

The ACPL Mobile Library will help ACPL accomplish its mission of supporting educational success and lifelong learning, and of providing learning opportunities for all members of our community to be successful in living a larger life by nurturing the heart and the mind. While the ACPL Mobile Library will target a number of communities around our county, the focus for services will be educational institutions (schools, day cares, summer camps etc.), Senior or Assisted Living Facilities, neighborhoods that are identified as providing transitional housing, assisted housing, or extremely rural locations.
