Read and Win This Summer!

The first time that you reach BINGO, you will receive a certificate for a free book, which you will be able to claim at a later date (TBD).

We will have weekly drawings based on the bingo entries we receive each week, so the more often you get BINGO, the more chances you have to win!

Track your reading on our minute tracker (<https://www.alamancelibraries.org/children/summer-reading/>) to be entered into a drawing for an end of summer prize!
