Alamance County Public Libraries Outreach Policy

Alamance County Public Libraries' Outreach program is a service to provide library materials to residents of Alamance County who are unable to come to the library. To be eligible for the service a patron must be an Alamance County resident, have or be eligible for an Alamance County Public Libraries card, and be unable to come to the library due to a permanent condition, or a temporary condition that will last for six weeks or more, and have no one who can pick up and deliver books for him or her. There may be a waiting list to receive Outreach services. Patrons may remain in the program for as long as they need the service.

Volunteers will visit homebound residents on a schedule to deliver materials and to pick up library materials for return. Library staff will make selections based on customer preferences previously indicated. Alamance County Public Libraries has the right to restrict the format and any titles requested based on availability.

Patrons who participate in the Outreach program must agree to allow Alamance County Public Libraries to maintain a reading history log for the sole purpose of avoiding duplication of materials and circulation. The reading log history will only be used for internal purposes and will not be shared publicly.

Library staff will select materials for Outreach patrons and check the materials out on the patron's card. The library will arrange to have a volunteer deliver the materials to an Outreach patron's home on a scheduled basis. Outreach patrons are responsible for any lost or damaged items.

Outreach volunteers who deliver library materials are available only for scheduled visits to discuss reading selections and delivery of books. They will not provide assistance with activities of daily living or advice on financial or personal matters. Renewals and requests for specific materials must be handled with library staff, not via the delivery volunteer.

The program is supervised by the Outreach coordinator. Any problems or conflicts with the volunteer are to be reported to the Outreach coordinator. Alamance County Public Libraries reserves the right to terminate Outreach services to any individual who does not meet the guidelines set forth.

By my signature below, I hereby agree to hold harmless and release Alamance County Public Libraries, its officers, agents, employees, and representatives (volunteers) from any loss, liability, claim, suit or judgment that may arise out of or in conjunction with Outreach services.
