NEWS RELEASE

Additional Charges Stem From October 31st March In Graham

November 19, 2020

Graham, NC-

The Alamance County Sheriff's Office has brought forth additional charges against an event organizer and two others involved with the I Am Change-March to the Polls event which occurred on Saturday October 31, 2020 in Graham, N.C.

Event organizer Rev. Gregory Drumwright along with associates Brenden Jamar Kee and Samuel Pierre, have been charged as a result of their involvement in an altercation resulting in the injury of a Deputy.

The altercation began while Deputies were investigating a report of an individual who entered the crowd on the Historic Courthouse grounds with a gasoline can. Deputies then discovered the presence of a running gas powered generator in a wagon made of fabric, also on the Historic Courthouse grounds. The generator was strictly prohibited and known to be so by Mr. Drumwright.

After reviewing additional video taken of the altercation and consulting with the Alamance County District Attorney, warrants against the three were taken out Wednesday November 18, 2020.

None of the defendants have yet been served.
