ACSO Arrests Male for Charges Related to Violation of the National Firearms Act

In June of 2020, Alamance County Sheriff's Office Detectives were investigating Luke Lloyd Clark for his involvement with stolen property and vehicles. A search warrant was conducted on his property on Thompson Mill Rd., and a rifle with a home-made suppressor was located and seized.

Clark did not have the proper National Firearms Act (NFA) Federal tax stamp to possess a firearm suppressor. After further investigation, a warrant was obtained for the state charge which is equivalent of a violation of the NFA. Clark was taken into custody at his residence without incident on February 22, 2021.
