

Why do we need a strategic plan?

In order to protect and improve what we value about living and working in Alamance County, we need to help our County government make decisions that reflect those values. This plan will provide focused goals for County government based on input that the County's citizens share.

Planning Greatness